

March to the beat of a different drum!

Award-winning Métis author David Bouchard introduces the latest books in his First Languages series.

In The First Flute, David Bouchard tells the story of a young man given the name Dancing Raven. He is a dancer—the best from all the nations. But the other men and boys in his village don't appreciate Dancing Raven's talent—hunting, fishing and tracking are the truly important talents. Dancing Raven must prove to his village the importance of his song.

"The paintings are both simple and profound, serene and dynamic." —The Globe and Mail

"Based on Cree painter Allen Sapp's childhood memories of life on a reserve in Saskatchewan, The Song Within My Heart tells of a young boy who is getting ready to go to a powwow. Bouchard's lyrical text, with its thoughtfully chosen words, evokes a quiet, introspective mood. Richly textured and infused with an almost radiant light quality, the illustrations reinforce strongly the simplicity of life on the reserve, the significance of the powwow and the love between grandmother and grandson." —CM Magazine
